Le Corbusier

Swiss / French Designer

Charles-Edouard Jeanneret was born in Switzerland but became a French citizen in his 30's. It was about this time that he took up his pseudonym, Le Corbusier - an altered form of his maternal grandfathers name.

Le Corbusier is one of the pioneers of what is now called Modern architecture or the International Style.

Le Corbusier began experimenting with furniture design in 1928 when he invited architect, Charlotte Perriand to join his studio. This collaboration lasted nearly 10 years.
