20th Century Modern Classics

Poul Kjærholm

Danish Designer

A trained carpenter Poul Kjærholm brought craftsmanship and industrial materials together in his designs.

Kjærholm's work was selected by New York's Museum of Modern Art to furnish the Museum's galleries and restaurants in their 2004 refurbishment. A testament to the sculptural beauty of this designer's work but also an acknowledgment of the practical applications of it.

The PK22 Easy Chair is a sublimely comfortable low lounge chair. Originally designed by Kjærholm for his own home.
